Biography

In the 1250s, the two gnomes joined forces with Blind Leon, turning the Guild of Beggars into an even more formidable syndicate. With Blind Leon usually keeping out of sight, Kwintensen and Kranmer were the ones who delegated tasks to gang members, associated thieves and beggars.

The three of them made a deal with church of the Eternal Fire's Minister for Security Affairs Chappelle: he would keep his Temple Guard out of their turf and in exchange no townsfolk would come to harm from their thugs. At one point, however, several thieves and beggars "went rogue", endangering the deal. Chappelle threatened Kwintensen that if he would not restore the status quo, his turf would be raided by Chappelle's men ready to make exemplary hangings. To underline his point, the minister added floor to the gallows, implying it could be set up for a gnome if necessary.[1]
